

Tom Gillson is a recent graduate of the IMAPP at ARU. His background is in teaching where over ten years he has worked with students as diverse as primary school children in Hong Kong and young adults with profound and complex special needs in the UK.

Tom has developed Strickers, a collectible sticker album based on the 24 VIA character strengths. Strickers aims to foster development and awareness of character strengths in primary school children and those that comprise the social worlds around them.